ABOUT THE JOURNAL

The Katsina-Ala Multidisciplinary Journal (KAMJOURNAL) is a TETFund sponsored publication. It is an annual Journal (published every June) centrally published by College of Education, Katsina-Ala, Benue State. This academic Journal is a publication cross-cutting many disciplines including the Arts, Sciences (core sciences and science education), Vocational and Technical Education, Education and ICT, World and Indigenous Languages as well as contemporary issues of global and national interest. The primary mission is to publish well researched articles that are original and which have the capacity to promote autonomous, qualitative and innovative novel scholarship that can improve the standard of education in Nigeria. It is open for patronage by practicing teachers, teacher educators, authors, curriculum experts, policy makers, students, publishers and librarians in all fields of educational endeavour.

NOTES TO WOULD-BE CONTRIBUTORS

The Editorial Board of the Katsina-Ala Multidisciplinary Journal invites empirical and non-empirical research articles, critical literature reviews, book reviews and or any article that has sound theoretical/conceptual basis on any educational problem in the above areas for publication in our next edition. Contributors wishing to send their articles should adhere to the following guidelines:

1. Articles submitted to Katsina-Ala Multidisciplinary Journal must not have been published or sent for publication elsewhere.

2. Format for Empirical Research

Abstract: Not more than 150 words on a separate page which must have the following key

- elements: · The problem investigated,
- Objectives and significance
- Methodology (methods and procedures)
- Potential impact
- Recommendations (highlighted)

Introduction: The introduction should cover background of the study, statement of the problem, theoretical framework, purpose of the study, research questions/hypotheses, significance of the study and literature review. The contributor needs not mention any of the above subtitles.

Method: This should embrace the research design, population, sample and sampling techniques, instrument for data collection, procedure for data collection, and method of data analysis.

Discussion: Should contain the result and how it answers the research questions.

Conclusion: Should focus on the findings, conclusion and appropriate recommendations and contribution of knowledge.

References: The reference sections should normally contain a list of works cited in the body of the article using the latest American Psychological Association (APA) style (7th Edition).

3. Acceptable Length: Articles should not exceed 15 pages including tables, charts, appendices and references.

4. Line Spacing: Articles should be type-written double and printed on A-4 size paper. Three hard copies and one soft copy should be submitted.
